

YOU DON'T MAKE FRIENDS WITH SHARKS

Nome

Timmy was a shark. But he wasn't a normal shark. Timmy was kind and friendly and happy. Timmy laved to swim and play in the sea, but no one ever wanted to play with him. What Timmy wanted more than anything else in the world, was a friend that he could play and swim with. Timmy tried so hard to be friends with the other sea animals.

He swam up to the sea horse and said, "Will you be my friend?"

But the scared sea horse swam away.

He swam up to the turtle and said, "Will you be my friend?"

But the scared turtle swam away.

He swam up to the seal and said, "Will you be my friend?"

But the scared seal swam away.

Sad Timmy was swimming all by himself when Fred the fish saw him.

Fred the fish swam up to Timmy and said, "Will you be my friend?"

Timmy was so happy he said "YES. I will be your friend!"

So Timmy and Fred became the best of friends and spent their days swimming and playing in the sea together.

The Brave Tin Soldier

By Hans Christian Andersen

Read the story below.

There were once five-and-twenty tin soldiers, who were all brothers, for they had been made out of the same old tin spoon. They shouldered arms and looked straight before them, and wore a splendid uniform, red and blue. The first thing they ever heard was the words, "Tin soldiers!" uttered by a little boy, when the lid of the box was taken off. They were given him for a birthday present, and he stood at the table to set them up. The soldiers were all exactly alike, excepting one, who had only one leg; he had been left to the last, but they made him to stand firmly on one leg, and this caused him to be very remarkable. When the children came in the next morning, they placed the tin soldier in the window. But by, and one of them said, "Look, there is a tin soldier.

So they made a boat out of a newspaper, and placed the tin soldier in it, and sent him sailing down.

Answer each question.

- 2. Who did utter the words "Tin soldiers"?
- 3. A little boy b. A little girl c. An old man
- 4. Why the one tin soldier was different from the rest of them?

the window flew open, and out fell the tin soldier, it was a terrible fall. It began to rain, till there was a heavy shower. When it was over, two boys happened to pass

- 5. What did the children do the next morning?
- 6. Where was the tin soldier?

Pride and Prejudice
The Bennets
By Jane Austen

Read the passage. Then answer the questions.
"My dear Mr. Bennet," said his wife one day, "have you heard that Netherfield Park has been let at last?" Mr. Bennet replied that he had not. "But it has," she replied, "Mrs. Long has just been here and she told me all about it." "Well, Mrs. Long says that Netherfield is taken by a young man of large fortune from the north of England, that he came down on Monday to see the place and was so delighted with it that he agreed to take possession immediately,"
"What is his name?" "Bingley," she said. "Is he married?" "Oh, no, an unmarried man of large fortune, four or five thousand a year. What a fine thing for our girls!"
"How can that be?" "Mr. Bennet," replied his wife, "You must know that I am thinking of his marrying one of them." "You must visit him as soon as he comes."
"You and the girls may go, or, even better, you may send them by themselves, because as you are as good-looking Mr. Bingley might like you the best of the party." "My dear, you praise me too highly. But when a woman has five grown-up daughters, she ought to give up thinking of her own appearance. But you must go and see Mr. Bingley you ravise me too highly. But when a woman has five grown-up and the start of the same of the
