Dear Mr. Douglas,

I am writing this letter to confirm my retirement from the position of executive assistant which will be effective next month.

Though I have looked forward for years for my retirement to come, it saddens me that I will have to leave such fine people. The years that I have worked for this company are some of the best and most fruitful years of my life. I will be enjoying my retirement I am sure, but you will always be in my heart wherever I may go. Let me also take this opportunity to thank you, your staff and the company for all the love and support that you have given me during my employment.

It will be kind of you if you could confirm my retirement date and the things that I will do to return company equipments. If I can be of any assistance during the process, please call me

Thank you. God bless.

Thankfully,

Aaron Deville

Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Hiring Manager's Name],

I'm excited to apply for your newly announced social worker position as advertised on [Website Name]. Combining 8 years of experience with a master's degree in social work, I'm confident I would be an ideal candidate for this job opening.

Throughout my career, I've demonstrated an ability to provide superb emotional support and guidance to children, adolescents, and victims of domestic violence. Presently, I provide consultation, assessment, and treatment planning for children with complex psychological needs.

I've accumulated valuable hands-on experience in many facets of social work as demonstrated by the following accomplishments:

- Orchestrated more than 200 crisis interventions, achieving a 94% success rate over a period of 4 years
- Recipient of the 2017 Future of Social Work Award from the NASW Pennsylvania Chapter
- Currently managing an average caseload of 45 patients per month, with 42 making significant improvement during the last 3 months

My credentials, track record, and volunteer experience all show my unwavering dedication to social work. I truly love helping people overcome seemingly insurmountable predicaments, and it would be my honor to continue doing so as a member of your team.

Thank you for taking the time to consider my candidacy. I look forward to meeting you and discussing how I can contribute to [Company Name]'s vision in providing world-class psychological support services to teens nationwide. You may contact me at 895 555-555 or youremail@gmail.com to arrange an interview.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
